

During 2022, we held five network meetings:

- Welsh Government Children's Rights Plans
- A number of Children's Rights resources have been produced this year:

Children in Wales have resources which are aimed at supporting Babies and young children's voices and Rights in general –

Children in Wales | Early Years Resources

The Children's Commissioner Office have a range of early year's resources and training.

Early Years - Children's Commissioner for Wales \(childcomwales.org.uk\)

Jacky summarised and discussed the following paper: Children's Right to Participation in Early Childhood Education and Care: An Analysis in Finnish Policy.

Kate Wall and Claire Cassidy from the University of Strathclyde provided an international perspective of best practice surrounding participation for young children.

Members of the Third Sector Additional Needs Alliance (TSANA) presented an informative overview of the new ALN reform and its impact on young children.